NO. 89.

PREACHERSVILLE.

We hope Congressman Helm can prevail on our Uncle Sam to give Stanford a Federal building. 'Tis a pity he isn't favorable to the parcels post legislation.

John Rigsby, Jr., has just returned from a trading expedition to Casey, where he bought a large drove of stock of all kinds. If John keeps on he will be a hustler.

Menefee Elmore has at last succeeded in capturing his wild hog which we mentioned in a recent issue. The severity of the weather is supposed to have tamed it, as it was easily caught.

John Bell and wife gave a delightful social a few nights ago, which was enjoyed greatly by all present. Your correspondent was present and had the biggest time ever.

Mrs. Ona Naylor and Mr. and Mrs. Fado Parks were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lunsford Christmas day. The table fairly groaned under its load of good things and the way yours truly "filled up" was a caution.

Mr. J. B. Parks, a farmer living in Garrard, had the misfortune to fall and dislocate his hip, while driving hogs. In trying to retain his feet he fell a second time and rolled down the hill into a branch, where there was considerable water. His son, who was present, was unable to get his father out in his injured condition and had to call assistance. Mr. Parks is in a very dangerous condition. Fado Parks, our miller, is a son of the senior Parks.

The Baptist Sunday-school gave an entertainment which consisted of dialogues, speeches and songs, very creditably rendered, Friday afternoon. A great deal of credit is due Miss Rinda Pettus and Mrs. F. F. Cummins for their painstaking drilling of the pupils and frequent rehearsals of the exercises. After the exhibition was over a nice, well-loaded Christmas tree held the attention of the crowd and made many hearts glad. Santa Claus was present and, strange to say, seems to get greener as he gets older.

Miss Bettie Carpenter has been visiting Mrs. Tom Howard at Lancaster. B. T. Lunsford and wife visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lunsford. Miss Sarah Howard spent Christmas with Mt. Vernon friends. Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, of Lowell, were at John Williams'.

Mrs. Mattie Breedlove, of Goshen, was visiting her mother, Mrs. Levi Bell. Miss Rebecca Williams, of Knoxville, visited Mr. and Mrs. John Williams. Mrs. Frank Lykins, who has been sick so long, is now fully restored to health, thanks to the skill of the Drs. Gibson, of Richmond.

Mr. Grover Gastineau, aged 21 of near Hyattsville, and Miss Alpha Naylor, 21, of this place, celebrated Christmas day by driving to Lancaster and being united in marriage by Rev. F. M. Tinder. Mr. Gastineau is a son of Mrs. Mary Gastineau and is said to be a fine young man in every respect, while his bride is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Naylor, and is quite attractive and much admired by all who know her. The bride, who was dressed very becomingly in blue, never looked lovelier than on her wedding morn. We extend our best wishes to the happy couple and sincerely hope they may never know sorrow. Mr. and Mrs. Gastineau will begin house-keeping Jan. 1 near Hyattsville, where they will be at home to their many friends.

Kills Her Foe of 20 Years.

"The most merciless enemy I had for 20 years," declares Mrs. James Duncan, of Haynesville, Me., "was Dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating or drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up, I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength back again." For Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Kidney Trouble, Lame Back, Female Complaints, it's unequalled. Only 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

Bonner county, Idaho, has the longest wagon bridge in the world, the structure now being constructed across the Pend Oreille River, near Pend Oreille Lake, being more than two miles long. The bridge was commenced almost two years ago and has cost the county about $50,000, part of this being raised by subscription among the farmers on the North side of the river and business men of Sandpoint.

Diligent search by many private detectives, aided by the police of Philadelphia, New York and other Eastern cities, failed to disclose a clew as to the whereabouts of Roberta De Janon, the 16-year-old heiress, and Ferdinand Cohen, a waiter at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel in Philadelphia, who are believed to have disappeared together last Wednesday.

Mrs. George C. Rue, a well-known Danville lady, is dead.

C. D. Hocker, of the "Show Me" State, Pens a Few Lines.

GUILFORD, MO., Dec. 28.—Enclosed find draft for $2 to apply on my indebtedness to the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

What have you down in Kentucky in the way of weather? In North West Missouri we are having real winter and have had since the 4th of this month, at which time everything froze up, which is not usually the case even in this section. It has not been extremely cold; about eight below zero being as low as the thermometer has registered, but it has hovered around zero frequently during the month. Been snowing about twice a week for the last three weeks, yet we haven't but about eight inches of snow on a level. Now to you people down in old "Kentuck" a solid month of winter in December. I imagine sounds like rather a hard proposition, but the works of nature are so arranged that it never causes anything to occur so bad but what it could be worse, and very often there is something good comes of it. In this instance the sleighing and skating is simply well, I'll just say huge. If you doubt it, just ask Rev. Pat Davies when you see him. Pat has been preaching for the Methodists here during the cold spell. I think he lives near Danville, or at least he seems to be familiar about Danville and Stanford. By the way, we are utilizing other Kentucky products as preachers and teachers.

The Pittsburg Baseball Association has rented the Whittington ball park at Hot Springs, Ark., for practice.

Ten deaths from cold were reported in New York in one day last week. The mercury ranged from six to ten below during the day.

An agreement to arbitrate the dispute between the telegraphers and the management of the Big Four railway was reached in Cincinnati.

Mrs. Pearl Armstrong, charged with the murder of her husband, George Armstrong, was bound over to the grand jury without bond in New Albany.

It was officially announced that Mrs. Charles P. Taft, of Cincinnati, had purchased the grounds of the Philadelphia National League Baseball Club from John I. Rogers and A. J. Reach.

Ray Lamphere, slayer of Mrs. Belle Gunness and her children, at Laporte, Ind., died of tuberculosis in the Michigan City penitentiary, where he was serving an indeterminate term for arson.

In the village of Santa Claus, near Indianapolis, two children were burned to death. Their mother found their blackened, writhing little bodies a few minutes before they died, in a room where she had left them playing an hour before.

The will of the late James W. Friend, of Pittsburg, probated, disposes of an estate of $15,000,000, one-third going to his widow, Martha A. Friend, and the remaining portion equally divided between the testator's four children. There were no charitable bequests.

Bundled into an automobile, Mrs. Caroline Martin, mother of Mrs. Ocey Snead, the bathtub victim, and Mrs. Mary Snead, were taken away from the Tombs prison to Newark, N. J., where they are under indictment on charges of causing the death of Mrs. Ocey Snead.

Former President Zelaya of Nicaragua, who has found refuge in Mexico, called upon President Diaz at the national palace. Zelaya said that the object of his visit was to express his thanks for the courtesies he had received from the officials of Mexico. There was little ceremony.

Five men who intended to rob the three banks and the post-office at Harrah, Okla., ran into a posse headed by United States Marshal "Jack" Abernathy. As a result two of the bandits are dead, one is in jail at Guthrie, wounded, and two suspects are in jail at Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Pearl Goode, a handsome young woman, 30 years of age, in accordance with a decision of the Criminal Court of Appeals of Texas, affirming the action of the lower court, will be sent to the penitentiary to serve a sentence of 25 years on a charge of complicity in the murder of her husband.

What apparently is a murder mystery was presented to the police of Atlanta by the finding of a head of a white man evidently freshly cut from the body, in a trash bucket in one of the halls of the Prudential building, one of the large office structures in the business section of that city.

Three persons, two of whom were women, were killed and at least 45 injured, some probably fatally, when the "California Special" on the Rock Island railroad jumped the track near Trenton, Mo. Only two cars remained on the track. The others quickly burned. The cause of the accident was said to be spreading rails.

Attorney Martin W. Littleton convinced Charles W. Morse, the convicted president of the Bank of North America, of the utter futility of any further attempt to escape the sentence of the court and Morse has been placed in the Federal prison in Atlanta to commence the service of his 15-year sentence. He was accompanied on his trip South by his wife and two sons.

A physician who claims to be a personal friend of Dr. Cook, but who refused to allow his name to be made public, says that he had received a letter from the missing explorer, who he says is at a camp owned by Geo. E. C. WALTON of Lincoln county, is a candidate for re-nomination for Congress from the Eighth district, subject to the action of the democratic party.

TON L. JOHNSON, for eight years mayor of Cleveland, at noon Saturday formally transferred the office to his successor, Herman C. Baehr. Ex-Mayor Johnson is one of the picturesque men of the country and a strong man in his State. He possesses indomitable energy, is scrupulously honest but there are those who doubt his judgment in the management of a great city like Cleveland. While popular with people, he made enemies of the corporations, whose powerful fight against him accomplished his defeat.

OFFICERS of the American Federation of Labor have issued a call on its 1,500,000 members to subscribe to a fund with which to wage a fight on the "steel trust." The call arraigns the corporation as inimical both to labor and the country, and as a violation of the laws. The sum of $154,000 is to be raised at once. As the labor union and the steel trust are both powerful organizations a strong fight may be expected, and the public will watch it with much interest.

DEMOCRATIC friends and county officials presented Judge Frank A. Bullock with a $250 silver service on his retirement as county judge of Fayette, after 16 years' of excellent service. We opine the city of Lexington and Fayette county will before long regret their action in turning down this splendid official.

HOPE that the war would be brought to an end through the recognition of the provisional government of Nicaragua by the United States has been abandoned. Many believe that two more battles must be fought, one in the State of Chontales and the other near Managua.

THE Louisville Times' 100-page edition celebrating the 25 anniversary of that excellent paper, is a magnificent effort. It is full of interesting news matter and liberally illustrated from the first page to the last. The paper is a credit not only to the publishers, but to the State at large.

THE republicans know how to manage State affairs, we don't think. When they took hold the treasury contained nearly $1,000,000 and now there is a deficit of $750,000 and the rads want relief from the Legislature. The chances are they will not get it.

JUDGE M. C. SAUFLEY came into possession of his own yesterday when he convened circuit court at Danville. His legion of friends are delighted to see him on the bench again.

HUSTONVILLE.

Look what a reduction on clothing; $22.50 suits or overcoats, $15. $27.50 suits or overcoats at $18.50. Adams Bros.

Cleve Dunn and Eph McGill caught 66 rabbits in two days last week by using a ferret to run them out of their holes.

All merchants report a splendid holiday trade, which, added to their fall and winter business, closes a successful year.

We are glad to note the improved condition of Mr. J. F. Jeffers, who has been in a sanitarium in Louisville for some time.

Galvani, the great hypnotist, who set Stanford people wild with his wonderful powers, will be at Alcorn's Opera House Friday night.

S. A. Randell, of Somerset, has closed a deal with Miss Ellen Powers for an up-to-date cottage to be built on her lot on West Main street.

Hudson Bohon sold his four-acre crop of tobacco last week at the fancy price of 15c straight. It pays well to properly handle and grade any crop of tobacco.

The impromptu hop at Hotel Weatherford was the enchanting feature of the Yuletide and an event which will long be remembered by the many happy participants.

The Hustonville Produce Co., under the efficient management of L. A. Farias, reports a continued increase in its business, necessitating additional poultry yards, egg rooms, etc, in order to handle the business without delay.

At the annual election of officers of Hustonville Lodge F. and A. M., the following were chosen for the ensuing year: Everett Carson, worshipful master; E. W. McCormick, senior warden; Walter Carson, junior warden; John Riffe, secretary; J. P. Goode, tyler; J. W. Hoskins, senior deacon; O. S. Williams, junior deacon; Sam McKinney, treasurer; John Dinwiddie, chaplain.

What would probably have been a disastrous fire, was narrowly averted last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Dinwiddie. For a day and night before it was discovered, smoke was smelled over the house, but search failed to locate it. Young Lips, in making a fire one morning, found the hearth too hot to stand on and giving the alarm, found a bed of hot coals about ready to burst forth in a flame.

John B. Riffe and family have moved to the Logan home on Main street.

Misses Grace, Sallie and Josie Goode were at home from Louisville during the holidays. George Tucker and family have moved to the C. K. McClure place for this year. Jess O. Carpenter, our hustling liveryman, has moved from the Newton block to the Mac Logan cottage. J. W. Allen has rented the Elias Kidd farm near Kidd's Store, and taken possession. Messrs. McBath and Gann, two excellent gentlemen, and their families, have moved up from Wayne county to the farm recently bought of John Steele Carpenter. Mrs. H. F. Waller and sister, Mrs. Dowd McCarley, of Okolona, Miss., spent Christmas with their parents here. Jas. Frye and family, of Tulia, Texas, send greetings to their many friends in "dear old Lincoln county."

POLITICAL.

George S. Wilson, of Union county, candidate for Speaker of the House, has no opposition.

The failure of Gov. Willson to appoint a member of the Board of Control is causing comment and criticism in republican circles in Frankfort.

For the first time in its history, the State of New Hampshire observed New Year's day as a legal holiday, January 1, having been so designated by the last Legislature.

At a meeting of the Cabinet officers the committee was agreed on to formulate into conventional form the views of President Taft on the subject of whisky production and branding.

The State officials will recommend to the Legislature that the State issue $1,000,000 in bonds to pay its indebtedness. Frank James, the Auditor, said the deficit at the end of the next fiscal year would be $750,000.

Wm. J. Gaynor was installed as Mayor of New York, Saturday. The former Judge had previously taken the oath of office and the ceremony of installation was of the simplest character. Nevertheless there was a throng as big as the mayor's office would hold to witness the brief ceremony.

MATRIMONIAL.

Charles Milner, of Louisville, and Miss Josephine Hudson, daughter of Mrs. Hudson, of Danville, were married last week.

John W. King, aged 19, and Miss Hannie Blythe, 14, of Lewis county, were married at Maysville. The bride's father gave his consent to the wedding.

With the President of the United States as a guest, Miss Louise W. Taft, his niece, was married in New York to George H. Snowden, of Seattle, at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Taft.

It is reported that a dot of $1,000,000 will be conferred upon the bride when Preston Davie, of Louisville, and Miss Emily Bedford, of Brooklyn, are married to-day. The marriage will be the biggest event in Brooklyn society so far this winter.

Resolutions of Respect.

Resolutions of respect by the Lincoln County Medical Society:

At the lonely hour of midnight on Aug. 20, 1909, the spirit of Dr. L. B. Cook took its flight to Him Who gave it and left the pain-wrecked body to be viewed upon earth for the last time by a broken-hearted companion, grief-stricken children, brothers and sisters and a multitude of sorrowing friends. Therefore be it resolved

1st. In the death of Dr. Cook the medical profession has lost one of its ablest and truest members, the home a kind, loving husband, indulgent father, the community a most faithful, efficient servant, society its best example and the church a true Christian.

2nd. That these resolutions be spread upon the minute book of this meeting, a copy sent to The State Medical Journal and to the INTERIOR JOURNAL for publication and the family be furnished with a copy of these resolutions.

E. J. Brown, J. F. Peyton, H. Reid, committee.

Forced into Exile.

Wm. Upchurch of Glen Oak, Okla., was an exile from home. Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightful lung-racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps. "Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery," he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever." It saves thousands yearly from desperate lung diseases. Infallible for Coughs and Colds, it dispels Hoarseness and Sore Throat. Cures Grip, Bronchitis, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough. 50c and $1, trial bottle free, guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

Playing Safe.

The year is clean, devoid of blame; The year is pure, I hastily advance the claim As being sure.

The year is pure, the year is young And clean, I wish,

No poet with a serpent's tongue Can challenge this.

Why do I all these things avow?

Because I know

The same a fleeting week from now May not be so.

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—noting else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. This tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—can be easily taken in the mouth. Its effect is charming, pleasingly delightful. Gently though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure.

If you have a painful period with women, same cause. If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablet simply distributes the pain.

Bruise your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is always. It's simply Common Sense.

We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend
